FLOWER FLAG DEFENDS LAWN OF T. SHARKEY

Pugilist Puts Emblem on Lawn Wanted by City for Street Lise.

IS A WEIRD "COMBINE."

Sheepshead Bay Wonders If It Will Prevent the Threatened Invasion.

As a silent but elequent protest against those who would lop off part of his lawn to make a street. Thomas Sharkey, the ex-pugilist, has caused the fioral dealgn of the Stars and Stripes to be laid on the grass in front of his fine summer home at Sheepshead Bay. The fing takes up most of the ten feet which the city seaks to take over in order to cut East Twenty-fifth street through from Voorbies avenue to Emmons avenue.
I suppose Tom will stand on the flag." said a wise resident of the Bay. "and when the sa et opening fellows come along will remark, after the man ner of Gen. Dix, 'The first man that ettempts to dig up my flag will be dropped with a right book to the point of the jaw."

East Twenty-fifth street ends at Voorhies avenue, and application has been made to have the street continued. Should this be done ten feet of Shar key's lawn would have to be taken for the street, which would also out the blg barn on the rear of the grounds in Sharker beard of the contemplated hieve to out the street through and put the place up for sale. There came one who would purchase and Tom was glad, but the deal fell through. Sharkey de-cided to remodel the place and live in it himself again this summer. Many thousands have been spent in painting, renovating, planting hedges and laying a concrete sidewalk about the place. But the street opening plan bothered Sharkey and then he bethought him of the flag scheme.

the flag scheme.

The design is made up of deep reeds, the mauve of forget-me-nots and the bright greens of the flowers' stalks.

'So that's an American flag, hey?' said a veteran, 'Tom got the green in there all right, but why not put in some buckwheat? I thought that was one of his favorite flowers.'

Now all Sheepshead Bay is a walting the coming of the desecrators of the Sharkey lawn. Will the strange flag supposed to be the Stars and Stripes halt the march of the street opening forces? Bets are being made by the horsemen in and around the Bay that the strange device will avail Sharkey naught and that the beautiful lawn surrounding his $20,000 home will be sliced.

THUGS BEAT IN BROOKLYN

Trio of Highwaymen Who Waylay Charles Ostrand Also Attack Woodburn,

Charles Ostrand, of No. 988 Third avenue, Manhattan, was set upon by three highwaymen in front of Borough Hall, Brooklyn, at dawn to-day, beaten into insensibility and robbed of a roll of bank bills and his watch.

The station for the police traffic squad is only twenty feet from where Ostrand was found, and that robbers should have operated so close to the police is taken as an illustration of their boldness in Brooklyn these days.

Ostrand was going to take a trolley car when the three men who had been hiding under the shadow of the hall, sprang out at him. One of the men felled him with a club and the others began kicking and beating him until he began kicking and beating him until he was unconscious. Quickly stripping him of money and watch, the robbers made off as some men came up the street. The police are convinced that the same three highwaymen attacked Samuel Woodburn in Washington street, early yesterday, and robbed him of $300. Woodburn was beaten into insensibility. A score of detectives are on the hunt for the robbers, but in the absence of any description, they have little hope of catching them.

Ostrand was taken to the Brooklyn Hospital. His injuries were severe.
